LOUISIANA SUPREME COURT AWARDS TRAINING CONTRACT TO SECURITY ASSESSMENT GROUP, INC

Security Assessment Group, Inc. awarded contract by the Louisiana Supreme Court to provide training to Orleans Parish Criminal Justice Agencies.

LAFAYETTE, LOUISIANA – November 12, 2008 — Security Assessment Group, Inc. (S.A.G.) today announced the awarding of a contract by the Louisiana Supreme Court for the administering of training to the various Orleans Parish Criminal Justice agencies. The contract is part of recovery monies set aside to assist in the recovery effort of Orleans Parish following the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina. .

S.A.G. will provide training to the employees of the agencies on such various topics as: Sexual Harassment, Prevention of Workplace Violence, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Outlook, Enlightened Leadership, and Conflict Resolution to name just a few. This training is designed to assist in building up the structure of the agencies in an effort to not only improve employee and management relations but those interactions with the community these agencies service.

“S.A.G. is looking forward to working with the various entities as we provide this training,” said James Stewart, CEO of Security Assessment Group. “I saw firsthand the devastation that Katrina brought to New Orleans both immediately following the storm as well as the long term impact. This training is an opportunity for criminal justice agencies to learn how to provide a higher level of service to the community while at the same time focusing on the day to day employee interactions that impact everything from morale to operational costs.”
